Worship Assistants Needed

We are in need of worship assistants – Head Ushers, Greeters, Ushers, Acolytes, Communion Assistants, and Altar Guild, for both the 8:00 a.m. and the 10:15 a.m. services. If you are able and willing to serve, you may contact the church office (610-754-7762 or office@stlukeslutheran.church).

Turkey Supper Ticket Donations

Let's Talk Turkey!!! Unfortunately, in our community many people go to bed hungry. They don't know where their next meal may come from. So to expect a Thanksgiving meal with all the fixings isn't even a thought. We'd like to help make it a reality for some with your help and that of the Daily Community Food Pantry. We are collecting money to buy Turkey Dinner take-outs at the Turkey Supper on November 17th. The cost of a meal is $15 but any amount can be contributed. Our hope is to raise $750 which equals 50 meals. A collection jar will be in the narthex. Watch the Turkey in the Narthex to see our progress.

Guest Organist

Thank you to Ethel Geist for playing the organ and leading the choir today.

Who Is This Host Arrayed in White (Den Store Hvide Flok)

Who Is This Host Arrayed in White is sung to a 17th century Norwegian folk tune that was published in Oslo in 1853. The text was written by Hans Brorson, and translated into English by Gracia Grindal, recently retired from Luther College where she taught for 30 years. Ten of her hymn translations are in the new Lutheran hymnal. The tune's structure is three nearly identical sections, with the small change in the first measure of the third section. There the pickups go a step higher; that small alteration leads to an ending of the verse, but does not change the congregation's memory for the remainder of the melody. The harmonization is from Edvard Grieg's Opus 30, #10 for male chorus. The last stanza's adaptation of the harmony is by Charles Ore.

Edvard Hagerup Grieg (June 15, 1843-April 4, 1907) born in Bergen, Norway, of Scottish ancestry, studied piano with his mother and piano and composition at the Leipzig Conservatory. After he went to Copenhagen, Denmark, and set Hans Christian Andersen's poems to music, he devoted the rest of his life to Norwegian music. He established the Norwegian Academy of Music, taught, conducted, played, and toured. A prolific composer who received a lifelong stipend from the Norwegian government, his style is individualistic yet, like this folksong, has an uncanny capacity to mirror the haunting Norwegian landscape and soul. He married his cousin, the soprano Nina Hagerup, who inspired and sang many of his songs.
